National Court of Honor Lifesaving and Meritorious Action Awards

Upon nomination by the Sam Houston Area Council, the National Court of Honor of the Boy Scouts of America has authorized the presentation of Lifesaving and Meritorious Action Awards.

The Honor Medal with Crossed Palms may be awarded to a youth or leader who has demonstrated unusual heroism and extraordinary skill or resourcefulness in saving or attempting to save a life at extreme risk to self.

- Kristian Rau, Youth, Scouts BSA Troop 623, for quick action and intervention at his own initiative, when he thwarted a stabbing attempt at his junior high school. Kristian followed the attacker chasing another student into a storage closet, grabbed the attacker's arm to prevent the stabbing, and pushed the attacker further into that room which allowed him and the student to escape, and locked the attacker inside until help arrived.

National Court of Honor Lifesaving and Meritorious Action Awards

The Honor Medal may be awarded to a youth or leader who has demonstrated unusual heroism and skill or resourcefulness in saving or attempting to save a life at considerable risk to self.

- Isaiah Clark, Youth, Scouts BSA Troop 424, for quick action in the rescue of a man in danger, far from shore in rough seas. Making a series of great decisions, Isaiah used the buddy system, and a flotation device rescue (surfboard), and ensured the victim grabbed the surfboard and not him to perform this rescue. His actions clearly prevented a fatality.
- Akshay Kapur and Michael Gatlin, Youths, Scouts BSA Troop 549, for their efforts in a 45-minute test of endurance, where the scouts were in the same canoe in very rough water and threw a rescue throw bag to victims of a capsized canoe and towed them to shore. The victims, due to the lake conditions, were unable to right their canoe but were able to hold on to it as it was towed to shore.

National Court of Honor Lifesaving and Meritorious Action Awards

The Medal of Merit may be awarded to a youth or leader who has performed an act of service of a rare or exceptional character that reflects an uncommon degree of concern for the well-being of others.

- Kenneth Phan Huynh, Youth, Scouts BSA Troop 1177 and Ship 864, for having successfully fought a fire on his back porch, caused by an errant firework, igniting family possessions and potentially setting the entire house on fire.
- Nathan Ridgway, Youth, Scouts BSA Troop 266, for recognizing the signs of cardiac arrest and successfully performing CPR on his father.
- Hunter Tomlinson, Youth, Scouts BSA Troop 1332, for recognizing his mother was in a dangerous situation and performing abdominal thrusts to clear her obstructed airway.
- Cooper Fairman, Youth, Scouts BSA Troop 549, for recognizing and reacting when fellow trek participants from a capsized canoe needed rescue assistance. His hands-on help getting to shore in adverse conditions making ready a final rescue site and treating those suffering from hypothermia was a significant contribution to their recovery.
- Dylan Simpson, Youth, Scouts BSA Troop 512, for recognizing an obstructed airway and providing back blows on a classmate choking on an orange at the school cafeteria.
- Pam and Tom White, Adults, Scouts BSA Troop 1283, for recognizing the need and performing CPR on an elderly cruise ship passenger, until the medical crew arrived with an AED, further assisting the crew medical team, all while calming and reassuring her adult daughter's distress.

National Court of Honor Lifesaving and Meritorious Action Awards

The National Certificate of Merit may be awarded to a youth or leader who has performed a significant act of service that is deserving of special national recognition.

- Jonathan Hogue, Youth, Scouts BSA Troop 1296 for quick action and intervention when he discovered, assessed, and sought medical assistance for an ill/semi-conscious high school student.

The Council Certificate of Merit may be awarded to a youth or leader who has performed a significant act of service that was an example of outstanding service and did reflect the high ideals of Scouting, which is deserving of special council-level recognition.

- Dwight and Oscar Huss, Youths, Scouts BSA Troop 351, while at home alone, the brothers discovered their younger brother severely cut his foot on a furniture frame. They identified the injury, assessed the situation, called for help, and performed first aid on their brother.

2023 Silver Beaver Award

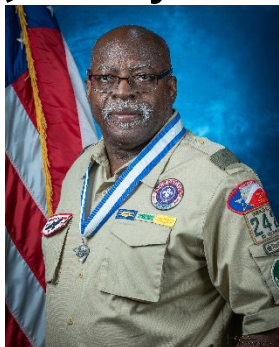

The Boy Scouts of America, acting through the National Court of Honor and upon the nomination of the Sam Houston Area Council, presents the Silver Beaver Award to persons for their distinguished service to youth. The Sam Houston Area Council makes a limited number of nominations each year, according to the total number of units registered in the council.

This award is bestowed for noteworthy service of exceptional character to youth by registered adult volunteers who have been nominated by their Scouting peers.

The award itself consists of a silver beaver suspended from a blue and white ribbon worn around the neck. Recipients may wear the corresponding square knot, with a white strand over a blue strand, on the BSA uniform.
