 - 5. Lodge Vice Chief of Chapter Operations
 - 6. Lodge Vice Chief of Administration
- C. Lodge Officers may hold no other position in the Lodge.
- D. The term of office for all Lodge Officers shall be one year, from January 1st through December 31st.
- E. The procedure for election to lodge office shall be as follows:
 - 1. Lodge Chief shall be elected by a majority vote held annually at fall fellowship.
 - 2. The five Lodge Vice Chiefs shall be elected by the five largest pluralities of votes cast during elections at fall fellowship.
 - 3. All members running as candidates for a lodge office shall file with the Lodge Adviser or the adviser's designee no later than one week preceding the lodge officer elections. All candidates' names and the positions they are seeking shall be posted by breakfast on the day of the election. An individual may run for both Lodge Chief and another lodge office.
 - 4. All candidates for a lodge office must reside within the Sam Houston Area Council boundaries and remain registered in a Sam Houston Area Council unit for their entire anticipated term. This requirement can be waived with the approval of the Lodge Adviser after consultation with the candidate seeking office.
 - 5. All candidates must be under twenty-one years of age for the entire term of their anticipated office.
 - 6. All members under twenty-one years of age present at the fall fellowship shall have the right to vote.
 - 7. Voting shall be by secret ballot, including online balloting. The ballots shall be counted by the Election Committee appointed by the Lodge Adviser.
 - 8. An individual seeking election may not hold or seek any other council-wide position in Sea Scouts or Venturing BSA without the express approval of both the Lodge Adviser and other advisor.
- F. The succession policy for lodge office shall be as follows:
 - 1. Any lodge officer may be removed from office for neglect or misconduct, as defined by the Lodge Key 3, in the course of his or her responsibilities as a lodge officer. The lodge officer may be impeached by a majority vote of the Steering Committee. Then, the individual has 30 days to request a vote before the next Lodge Executive Committee meeting to retain their position. If two-thirds (2/3) of registered Chapter Chiefs vote in favor of the officer, the individual will be retained. The Scout Executive or the executive's designee shall preside at any such meetings. The officer shall have the right to speak at the meetings of the Steering Committee and the Lodge Executive Committee.

2. In the event of death, resignation, dismissal, or election to Section Chief of the Lodge Chief, the Lodge Vice Chiefs shall select a new chief from among themselves, with the approval of the Lodge Adviser and Lodge Staff Adviser. If no eligible Lodge Vice Chief wishes to accept the position of Lodge Chief, then the Lodge Executive Committee shall elect a Lodge Chief from the membership of the lodge by a simple majority vote with the approval of the Lodge Adviser.
3. In the event of death, resignation, dismissal, or election to the section chief of a Lodge Vice Chief, the Lodge Chief shall appoint a new officer to fill that position with the approval of the Lodge Staff Adviser and the Lodge Adviser.
