BCS 101	Core Concepts of Unit Service	The position of commissioner is one of the oldest in Scouting. This course reviews and reinforces the core concepts of unit service and identifies the key skills needed for commissioners to be able to serve their units well.
BCS 102 A*	The Unit and Membership Renewal Process (NEW)	Covers the new renewal process for fall of 2024 with lots of FAQ information. Great idea to take to get up to speed.
BCS 104	Contacting Units	The course discusses how connections commissioners make with their units are at the heart of unit service. This course looks at the role of contacts between commissioners and their units and explains the importance of using Commissioner Tools to record and manage unit contacts.
BCS 105	Resolving Common Unit Issues	This course will build the commissioner's knowledge of the early warning signs of a unit in danger of failing, as well as use group discussions about how to support problem-solving of some common issues.
BCS 113	Welcoming, Engaging and Onboarding Commissioners (New)	Come learn how to onboard your new commissioners.
BCS 115	Commissioners - The Single Best Resource! (NEW)	Commissioners provide unit leadership with information and guidance on the latest changes in the programs of the BSA. Providing unit service is the same regardless of the type of unit.
BCS 152	Planning, Implementing and Promoting Roundtables	In this course, participants will learn how to plan and implement a roundtable to best serve the units in their districts and council. They will also discuss how to promote roundtables to units they serve and to new leaders.
BCS 154	Roundtable Fundamentals	Roundtable is important not only for the leaders but for the youth they bring the information back to. This course extends the learning material from Roundtable Commissioner Basic Training.
MCS 305	Resolving Critical Unit Issues	The purpose of this course is to hone the commissioner's skills in assessing units, determining their strengths and weaknesses, and in developing plans to improve the functioning of the unit.
MCS 307	Serving Newly Formed Units	An engaged commissioner is critical for the success and retention of new units. Commissioners designated as a new-unit commissioner focus on only new units, preferably a single unit to which they have been assigned.
MCS 310	Succession Planning	To support the orderly change of leadership it is important to encourage each unit to create a long-term succession plan. Commissioners need to understand the process to support the development and maintenance of a succession plan in the units they support.
MCS 312	Recruiting the 21st Century Volunteer	We know how important it is to recruit new people to our teams, but how do we bring in a new generation of volunteers to commissioning? Join this engaging discussion with some enthusiastic Scouting volunteers who are part of that new generation.
MCS 314	The Commissioner and the Professional	In this course, participants will learn more about the relationship between the commissioner and the professional and how they can work closely together to support unit success.
MCS 316	The Unit Service Plan	Use of a Unit Service Plan is a key method of commissioning service. This session discusses the purpose of the Unit Service Plan, the process of developing a plan, and steps for implementing the plan.
MCS 351	Conducting the Roundtable Planning Session	Every district and council should have an advanced roundtable plan supported by the assistant council commissioner and assistant district commissioners who focus on roundtable as unit service.
MCS 353	The Cub Scout Roundtable Breakout	Cub breakouts are designed to reach those Cub Scout unit leaders who are implementing a specific part of the Scouting program and give them the will to do and the skill to do the job of a cub scout leader.
DCS 501	Selecting & Limiting Scope of Your Doctoral Project Thesis	This session will help those interested in learning more about the CCS doctorate degree process to identify what constitutes a good topic or focus area, and it covers the differences between a project or thesis.
DCS 503	Developing Your Project or Thesis	This session covers the project or thesis outline, as well as suggestions for writing and revising the project or thesis report. It will be helpful for participants to have a potential project or thesis identified when they attend, but it is not a requirement.
DCS 514	Building Meaningful Relationships	In this course we will discuss how commissioners may go about building and maintaining positive relationships with those they serve.
DCS 516	The Unit Service Plan and the District	In this session we will examine the district commissioner's role in completing unit service plans and how the district committee plays a key role in service plan completion.
DCS 551 A*	Roundtable Today (NEW)	Roundtable is designed to meet the needs of current Scout leaders by providing focused unit service. This means that the roundtable program each month is tailored to the needs of district Scout leaders through the purposes of roundtable: Networking, Training, Collaboration
DCS 602	Servant Leadership	Come learn why you should be a servant leader in an environment that discourages empowering others potentially at one's own expense.
CED 716	Navigating Difficult Conversations	This session will help participants analyze conflict from a coaching point of view and use tools to help navigate those difficult conversations when they occur.
CED 752	Advanced Roundtable Promotion	Roundtable is not a situation of "if you build it, they will come." You must first create a robust roundtable program that unit leaders need and then create a robust promotion plan to tell unit leaders WHY they should come to roundtable. The focus of this course will be the promotion plan.
CED 802	Using Commissioner Tools to Manage your Commissioner Team	The reports in commissioner tools can be daunting to someone who doesn't use them all the time. This course will help break down those barriers and teach you about some of the most useful reports to help you manage your commissioner team.
